Completion Report on Peer Learning with Brooklyn College and Kathmandu Shiksha Campus

Organized by Sunkoshi Kalika Multiple Campus

In close cooperation with University Grants Commission, Nepal

1. Background

The Peer Learning was conducted on 25th Fagun 2082. The program was organized by Sunkoshi Kalika Multiple Campus in close cooperation with University Grants Commission, Nepal. Peer learning is an education practice in which institutions share their knowledge and experiences with other peer institutions to enhance the quality of education and development of institutions. Students have visited Brooklyn College, Sokedhara, Kathmandu and Kathmandu Shiksha Campus, Satungal, Kathmandu, to observe teaching practices, administrative systems, and academic management of these HEIs.

The aim was to enhance mutual cooperation between the two campuses and foster the exchange of ideas among the lecturers and administrative staff. The visit was also an opportunity to learn about the creative strategies used by Brooklyn College, and Kathmandu Shiksha Campus in enhancing teaching methodology, research, and student engagement.

2. Objectives

- To observe and learn about academic and administrative practices leading model HEIs.
- To share best practices among faculty members of two campuses.
- To understand new approaches in teaching-learning processes adopted in classrooms.
- To explore possibilities of collaboration between two institutions.
- To improve quality of education and management at Sunkoshi Kalika Multiple Campus.
